Brand Development

The white glove treatment

What is the white glove treatment? Its our way of saying how we treat you with the aim of progressing your career in your respective line of work.

We ensure you get the best contract deals preventing signing of shady deals. A qualified and renowned attorney walks you through the contract ensuring you are always in loop and have a say if not at terms with some of the terms.

Financial Service

Strategic financial management

Securing the bag. With financial advisors that have 75 years of experience in the field in our agency we ensure you get sound financial advise, which includes money management by means of investments etc.

We also ensure when signing with brands you get ambassador deals and or brand purchase discounts.

Portfolio Development

Fundamental talent mapping

We aim to walk you through the journey of becoming a brand by means of outlining key checkpoints needing to be passed and how best to proceed from them.

With a number of reference figures we have worked with, we will ensure you get to the best result.
